

—
varthana
—

TRANSFORMING EDUCATION

PARENT ENGAGEMENT

Parent engagement transforms schools by fostering strong partnerships between families and educators. For school leaders, it enhances student outcomes and builds a collaborative school community, driving long-term success.

How to engage parents in behaviour management strategies?

Collaboration between schools and parents is key to children's academic and behavioral growth. Family Behavior Coaching Sessions provide personalized strategies, equipping parents with essential tools.

Read More

The A-Team: Why Parent-Teacher Partnerships are Key to Your Child's Success

Strong parent-teacher partnerships foster academic, emotional, and social growth through open communication, collaboration, and tailored support at home and school.

Read More

PAST RECORDED WEBINARS

Integrating Mind, Body, and Spirit: Holistic Education for Thriving Schools

View the webinar

Equity and Inclusion in Schools: Meeting the Needs of Every Student

View the webinar

Role of Parental Involvement in Education - A Study

This study examines how parental engagement impacts students' academics, behavior, attendance, and growth while addressing barriers, cultural factors, and strategies for stronger family-school collaboration.

Read More

Success Story

Discover how a visionary leader transformed rural Gurugram by building a school from scratch, breaking the cycle of poverty through education.

Yash Sharma,
Rainbow World School, Gurugram

Read More

